

Poem of A Virus

Max Ferns

Some type of virus came here

Even though

Life used to be good, we can work together

Finding clues

It's a beautiful day out side

So we can still go and play

Only controlling the virus

Living our lives

At home

Trying to work it out

In a worse world of a virus

Only a virus

No dithering around